

2019 MASAR Annual Conference

Camp Jordan, 101 Camp Jordan Way, Ellsworth, Maine, 04605, United States

Schedule:

Friday, 5/17/19

Wilderness First Aid Course 08:00 to 17:00 Friday and Saturday.

BASAR testing with registration for testing at 08:00 and running until approximately 22:00 on Friday.

Friday, 5/17, registration for the conference starts at 17:00

Speaker for Friday evening will be D.Dauphinee, Author of "When You Find My Body" a story about Gerry Largay. Dee has done extensive research for this book.

Saturday and Sunday, May 18 and 19

Presenters:

Kate Braestrup, Maine Warden Service Chaplain - Critical Incident Stress

Ben Speyer, Work Market Sales, Sterling Rope

Lt. Kevin Adam (Maine Warden Service) on Deploying Resources, including a case study

Ed Ponbriand on MASAR DO dispatching

Scott Marquis, InReach Enterprise Manager Garmin GPS

Brett Wagenheim, Garmin Rep, Garmin GPS

Paul Marcolini, teaching the WFA and others

Larry Garland, AMC Cartographer Maps

Maine Mounted Search and Rescue on the safe handling of horses and working with mounted SAR

Lelia DeAndrade, PhD, Vice President of Community Impact, Maine Community Foundation giving a Grant writing workshop

There will be a silent auction/raffle on Saturday evening

Speaker for Saturday evening will be Zach Fowler from the History Channel's "Alone." Zach is the Season 3 Winner from the survival series "Alone."

Link to conference registration: <https://masarconference.regfox.com/masar-conference>

Camp Jordan is a "summer" camp, bring your own bedding and towels.

The first meal served is Friday evening, so plan on bringing lunch if doing the BASAR testing or Wilderness First Aid. Last meal will be Sunday noon.